

Spring 2018
Grades 4-12

BRAHM Field Trips

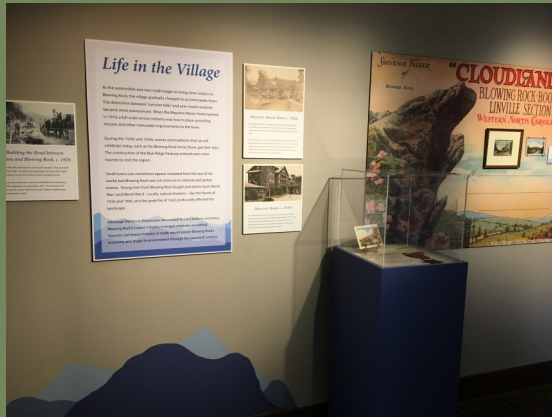

Blowing Rock Art & History Museum

NC Essential Standards

- * Contextual relevancy
- * Critical response
- * Culture
- * Economics
- * Geography
- * History
- * Visual literacy

Common Core

- * Literacy in history/
social studies
- * Speaking & listening
- * Writing

Ongoing

The Museum and the Blowing Rock Historical Society are proud to present this permanent exhibition exploring the history of the town of Blowing Rock and its place in the High Country. The town has recorded history tracing back to the late 1800s and has defined the cultural landscape for generations. Since the town has many stories, a section of this exhibition will be revisited regularly to focus on different areas of Blowing Rock's history.

- Free of charge for public and home schools in Watauga and contiguous counties • Limited number of reimbursements for school bus travel available for Watauga schools that receive Title I funding (thanks to a grant from St. Mary of the Hills Episcopal Church) • Advance notice of 2 weeks is required • Maximum class size 30
- Teachers will be given pre- and post-visit questions to prepare and follow up • Grades 4-12 • More information: Willard Watson, Programs & Outreach Director 828.295.9099 x 3006, programs@blowingrockmuseum.org, or www.BlowingRockMuseum.org

BRAHM
Blowing Rock Art & History Museum

159 Chestnut Street

Blowing Rock, NC 28605

828.295.9099

BlowingRockMuseum.org

Tue-Sat, 10-5

The Blowing Rock

This permanent display resides in the Museum's upstairs gallery, named in honor of Virginia ("Ginny") & David Stevens of the Blowing Rock Historical Society. Special thanks to Dr. Andrea Burns and Trent Margrif for guest curating the exhibition.